2. financially:
3. intellectually:
4. emotionally:
5. physically:
6. spiritually
7. relationally with each other:
8. relationally with our community:

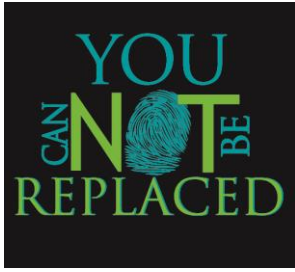

This parent part is an important piece in focusing your goals for your family. It will help to direct part 2

When you get to part 2 you can discuss it, or have the kids write their answers. Allow them to be honest without criticism.

Try to keep your focus relationship based and not focused on material goals.

Also be careful this doesn't turn into a chore chart for the kids, the Mission Statement is about interior work and family unity.

Family Mission Statement Part 2

Week 2 with kids

What are the 3 most important values of our family:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

What are 3 things our family does well:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Kids- What is the best thing Mom and Dad do for you?

What is something you would like to see mom and Dad do more of?

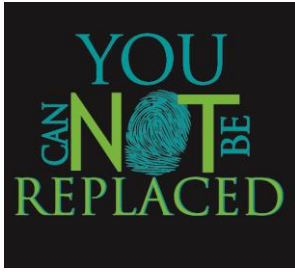

Parent- Which of your child's character trait are you most proud of?

What would you like them to work on

What are 3 things we would like to work on together as a family this year. (can be simple, saying please and thank you. Tech free time blocks, saying 'I forgive you' instead of 'Its ok or big, donate a couple hours a week to service, have a grateful jar....)
