How can starting small and implementing quarterly projects be a good approach for integrating service into the curriculum?

Why is it important to have the input of other teachers and staff members in assessing community needs?

SERVICE LEARNING CURRICULUM

The leadership team is not the only part of the student body that benefits from the 3 steps of service learning. Can you think of school wide initiatives that you could perform quarterly?

Come up with 4 different themes and assign and grade to each, make sure your themes make sense with the calendar. Ex: Fall, Food insecurity ends with a Thanksgiving food drive

Challenges

Opportunities

Ask yourself which disciplines could teach the introductory lessons on the topic/demographic. (ex. Environmental science and the farm) ?

Which classes could do the breakdown with the students? Could you send your student leaders to the other classrooms to facilitate discussions?
